Message from the President of the Forum

Dear Colleagues,

Mount Lebanon Hospital - Gharios Medical Center is pleased to invite you to the "4th Lebanese Oncology Forum" on July 16 & 17, 2020 as a Webinar series of meetings.
Kindly REGISTER today to receive the full program and links to sessions.

The forum's scientific program will focus on innovation in the field of Oncology and will feature distinguished speakers, who will help fellow healthcare professionals navigate through the various challenges faced in Oncology. In addition, these experts will highlight the importance of having multidisciplinary teams encompassing all medical departments and clinical services providing the best comprehensive care to cancer patients.

The forum will also highlight several medical disciplines such as General Surgery, Plastic Surgery, Urology, Otorhinolaryngology, Radiation Oncology, Radiology, Pathology, Hematologic and Oncologic Malignancies.

It is our sincere wish that the exchanges and discussions emanating from the organized seminars at the Lebanese Oncology Forum will instill a strong sense of cooperation and teamwork among the various professionals. The mentioned discussions will revolve around the latest evidence-based topics which are crucial to the treatment of Oncology patients.

Your active participation is highly appreciated. Indeed, your commitment to the forum will fall in line with Mount Lebanon Hospital's pursuit of better health and well-being in our society.
